Contractors are expected to allow opportunity for the introduction of materials and the performance and the coordination of work with each other. If work by the other Contractor impacts your work according to plans and specifications, it is the Contractor's responsibility to notify NNRHA COTR or Procurement Officer immediately.

- 36. NO WAIVER: No failure or delay by a party to insist on the strict performance of any term of this Contract, or to exercise any right or remedy consequent on a breach thereof, shall constitute a waiver of any breach or any subsequent breach of such term. Neither this Contract nor any of its terms may be changed or modified, waived, or terminated (unless as otherwise provided hereunder) except by an instrument in writing signed by the party against whom the enforcement of the change, waiver or termination is sought. No waiver of any breach shall affect or alter this contract, but each and every term of this Contract shall continue in full force and effect with respect to any other than existing or subsequent breach thereof. The remedies provided in this Contract are cumulative and not exclusive of the remedies provided by law or in equity.

In the event of conflict between a task order and this contract, the contract shall prevail.

- 40. PAYMENT: The prime Contractor is to submit invoices for services rendered directly to P.O. Box 797, Newport News, VA 23607. All invoices shall refer to the contract and/or purchase order number; social security (for individual Contractors) on the federal employer identification number (for proprietorships, partnerships, and corporations). Any payment terms requiring payment in less than 30 days will be regarded as requiring payment 30 days after invoice or acceptance, whichever occurs last. However, this shall not affect discounts for payment in less than 30 days. All goods and services provided under this contract/purchase order, which will be paid for with public funds, shall be billed by the Contractor at the contract prices, to include, itemization of charges. A. Unreasonable Charges

Upon determining that invoiced charges are not reasonable, the NNRHA shall promptly notify the Contractor, in writing, as to those charges which it considers unreasonable, and the basis for the determination. In such cases, Contractors should be put on notice that final payment in full is contingent on a determination of reasonableness with respect to all invoiced charges. Charges, which appear to be unreasonable, will be researched and challenged, and that portion of the invoice held in abeyance until a settlement can be reached. A Contractor may not institute legal action unless a settlement cannot be reached within thirty days of notification. The provisions of this section do not relieve NNRHA of its prompt payment obligations with respect to those charges, which are not in dispute (Code of Virginia § 2.2-4352).

B. Delays in Payment

NNRHA will make payment upon satisfactory completion, within thirty days. If work is not to the satisfaction of the COTR, the COTR will contact the Contractor to remedy the situation. If a new schedule is approved by COTR, and if the task is not completed within that time frame, NNRHA may proceed with default procedures.
